DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-17, drawn to a method of manufacturing a battery, classified in class 29, subclass 623.5.
 - II. Claims 18-26, drawn to a coating machine, classified in class 118, subclass 663+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions of Group I and Group II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process can be practiced by hand where the electrolyte layers can be formed on the electrode by pushing the material in a filling unit manually with a plunger which provides pressure to force the material out of the filling unit. The limitation “pressurization means” is not interpreted as invoking 112, sixth paragraph because it does not satisfy the criteria for invoking 112, sixth paragraph as set forth in Supplemental Examination Guidelines for Determining the Applicability of 35 USC 112, sixth paragraph, Federal Register, vol. 65, No. 120, June 21, 2000.

Art Unit: 1745

Moreover, the two groups of invention are also distinct because the coating apparatus can be used to practice another and materially different process such as applying paint to a surface of an object which is different from the claimed process of applying electrolyte to a surface of an electrode (see col. 1, lines 5-7 of US Pat. No. 5,766,356).

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

If Group I is elected, a single species is also to be elected for the macromolecular compound in the electrolyte selected from the group consisting of polyvinylidene fluoride, polyacrylonitrile, acrylonitrile butadiene-rubber, acrylonitrile butadiene styrene resin, acrylonitrile polyethylene chloride propylene diene styrene resin, acrylonitrile vinyl chloride resin, acrylonitrile metaacrylate resin, acrylonitrile acrylate resin, and polyethylene oxide, polyether denatured siloxane, a copolymer of polyvinidene fluoride, a copolymer of polyacrylonitrile, and a copolymer of polyethylene oxide (see claim 15).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1 and 12 are generic.

Art Unit: 1745

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
